2. with fourth largest circle die, draw half circles on each top panel. Cut up each score line to the first score and cut around circles. Remove two small sections of the 1/2 inch at top and bottom

3. Should look like this. add tear tape to remaining 1/2 inch portion. Fold in half and adhere to make box

4. adhere bottom flaps using tear tape
5. adhere square piece of Merry Merlot to the bottom of the box. This makes it look finished and provides stability.
6. fold in half circles to close top. You can use velcro or magnets to close or leave as is if using ribbon or belly band.
7. snip design from Pressed petals DSP. You may want to combine smaller designs with the large. Layer 5 petals from pressed petal washi tape in circle on the DSP. I rubbed the outer portion of the petal on my clothes to remove some of the sticky. Lay another 6 petals on the dsp. Add floral centers. punch 2-3 twig from green vellum and add to floral feature

8. punch a 1.5 circle from Merry Merlot and adhere to the bottom of the dsp. The DSP is thinner than the usual DSP and this will provide additional support.
9. wrap Rococo rose scalloped linen ribbon around your box. Tie off at top or use glue dots to hold together. don't adhere to the box, just to the other pieces of ribbon so the ribbon can be removed.
10. adhere floral feature to top of box with dimensionals adhered just to the ribbon.
